Defendant.)

The Court has received the Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR") and the Defendant's objections thereto (Filing No. 26). The government has adopted the PSR. (Filing No. 25.) See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to *United States v. The Defendant filed an "objection" to the PSR that is in the form of a motion for downward departure based on U.S.S.G. § 4A1.3 (over representation of criminal history) or for deviation from the sentencing guideline range. The motion will be heard at sentencing.

IT IS ORDERED:

2. The Court's tentative findings are that the Presentence Investigation Report is correct in all respects;
3. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;
